

Call for Presentations

GROW Nebraska builds an annual compelling event called MarkeTech featuring speakers with a wide range of marketing and technology expertise to give attendees access to the best education increasing their bottom line. MarkeTech doesn't stop there! It's more than a conference, its cutting edge training, valuable networking, and a technology showcase.

Be inspired, be engaged, and work hands on with today's most innovative tools.

"Speaking at MarkeTech is a great opportunity to meet and spend time with the business owners that are the foundation of this country." David McBee, Keynote Speaker

The Committee Review Team is seeking educational presentations that focus on real-life submissions with the prime focus on marketing and technology thus the name MarkeTech.
